

LAW

With support from the University of Florida College of Journalism and Communications

INVITED COSPONSORS: Project on Government Oversight, Public Citizen, National Security Archive

A Celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the 1974 FOIA Amendments featuring

a Mini Career Fair
November 1, 2024

GW Law Building, George Washington University
2000 H Street NW, Washington, DC 20052

(Street parking is extremely limited; for more information on garages located on campus, visit:
<https://business-services.gwu.edu/visitor-parking>)

Jacob Burns Moot Court Room (L 101)

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 9:00-9:30 am | Program Check-in and Coffee – Dee Kelly Lounge |
| 9:30-9:45 am | Welcome and Announcements – ASAP President Ryan Mulvey |
| 9:40-9:45 am | Introductions |
| 9:45-10:45 am | The Importance of Transparency in a Democratic Society
Transparency is at the foundation of our democracy, promoting accountability and allowing for an informed citizenry that can actively participate in the democratic process at all levels. Panelists will discuss the impact of transparency and the effects it has had on the democratic process. Panelists:
Alan B. Morrison, Lerner Family Associate Dean for Public Interest & Public Service at, George Washington University Law School
David Cuillier, Director of the Joseph L. Brechner Freedom of Information Project at the University of Florida College of Journalism and Communications.
Lauren Harper, Daniel Ellsberg Chair on Government Secrecy, Freedom of the Press Foundation |
| 10:45-11:00 am | Stretch Break |

- 11:00-12:00 n Media and Transparency
Congress enacted the FOIA with journalists in mind, emphasizing the need for prompt access to requested documents. Listen to journalists explain how they use the FOIA, the extent to which it has helped government accountability, and where it has fallen short.
Panelists:
Nate Jones, The Washington Post
Katie Townsend, Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press
Reporter/Journalist to be confirmed
- 12:00-1:00 pm Lunch (Light lunch will be available) – Dee Kelly Lounge
- 1:00-2:15 pm 50th Anniversary of the 1974 FOIA Amendments – A Look Behind the Curtain
Overshadowed by Watergate, the passage of the 1974 FOIA Amendments was not an easy “fix” to the Freedom of Information Act. Although President Ford was inclined to sign the legislation, he met with opposition within his own Administration. Tom Susman, who played an integral part in crafting the 1974 Amendments, pulls back the curtain with a behind-the-scenes look at the forces that supported and opposed the Amendments. He is joined in a fireside chat-style session with Miriam Nisbet, whose legal career started in 1978 with the US Justice Department’s inaugural Office of Privacy and Information Appeals, implementing the newly amended FOIA for the government. Miriam become the first FOIA ombudsman for the US government in 2009.
Panelists:
Thomas Susman, Strategic Advisor for Governmental Affairs and Global Programs for the American Bar Association
Miriam Nisbet, former Director of the Office of Government Information Services, NARA
- 2:15-2:30 pm Stretch Break
- 2:30-3:30 pm The Future of FOIA
Panelists will discuss the problems and solutions that technology poses and share differing perspectives as to what the future holds for accessing documents under the FOIA.
Panelists:
Ryan P. Mulvey, Policy Counsel, Americans for Prosperity Foundation
Jason R. Baron, Professor of the Practice at University of Maryland College of Information
Anne Weismann, Adjunct Professor, George Washington University Law School
Panelist to be confirmed
- 3:30 pm Closing Remarks